

August 25 – 27, 2017

Support Tacoma’s celebration of film and storytelling by contributing to the Destiny City Film Festival! Contributors receive significant advertising exposure for their business or organization on the festival website, social media, on-screen during the fest, and in the official program.

Contributors will receive a festival ticket package based on sponsorship level.

Sponsorship levels can include both monetary and in-kind support. All monetary contributions go directly to the organizing, growth and development of DCFE.

Thank you for your support!
